

Weather the Future: Safety & Emergency Readiness for Hawai'i

Presented by: Carly Yoshida, Miss Hawai'i 2026

Speaker Bio: Carly Yoshida is Miss Hawai'i 2026 and a weather anchor with KITV4 Island News. Through her "Weather the Future" initiative, she advocates for weather awareness, emergency preparedness, and community resilience across Hawai'i. A University of Hawai'i–West O'ahu graduate and former Miss Hawai'i's Teen, she combines science communication, public outreach, and community engagement to help Hawai'i residents better prepare for hazards and disasters. In September 2026, she will represent Hawai'i at the Miss America competition.
